Keeping your personal info safe

i2iContractorCover® will do its best to keep your info safe from any funny business—like meddling, loss, or unauthorized peeks. But, let's face it, even with all our fancy safeguards, data security isn't foolproof so it's super important that you also take steps to keep your personal info safe and sound. So, if you spot any suspicious activity or think there might be a security hiccup, give us a shout pronto. And if there's ever a privacy breach that we need to tell you about by law, we'll keep you in the loop.

Your privacy matters, so let's work together to keep it locked down!
